This rushing movement is obtained by holding the girl olosely and rushing her backward through the crowd at breakneck pace;

regardless of torn dresses, bruises, &o. Like all good things, the two step is being abused. It should be borne in mind that poor dancing is not the fault of the date, but of the dancer, as the dancer makes the dance by his manner of execution. This dance being so easy, to pick up by no-

BEAD OF A FRENCH RAILWAY REMOVED. PARIS, 23rd April. The English colony in Paris is excited over the action of the Government in forcing Sir Edward Blount, who for thirty years had been bhairman of the West railway, to resign. The ground taken by the Government was that Chairman Blount, by virtue of his position at the head of a great railway, had accose to the plans of the Government in the matter of mobilising troops. The Government did not believo a foreigner should hold a pos tion in France enabling him to become possessed of such information and took steps to compet his removal. Premier Casimir-Parier threatened that, unless Blount, retired, the Government, would introduce in the Dhamber of Deputies a bill excluding foreigners from the presidency of all Freuch railways.
